2. [Redacted] on 1 June 1951 he had seen similar trains with Soviet soldiers coming from the direction of Gerdauen at a rate of two per day. [Redacted] noticed only Soviet soldiers with closely cropped hair aboard these westbound trains, but were unable to specify the service color or insignia. [Redacted] said that these trains regularly proceeded from Gerdauen to Kuestrin, to Falkenberg via Frankfurt/Oder and Cottbus during the night or in the early morning hours, passing through Kuestrin and Frankfurt/Oder at night only. To conform with this security measure, [Redacted]
